

2026-2027 ACADEMIC YEAR GERMAN I-II (GERMAN 1&2) EXEMPTION EXAM ANNOUNCEMENT

During the Fall Semester of the 2026-2027 Academic Year, a German Exemption Exam will be administered for students who have selected the elective foreign language courses offered under the School of Foreign Languages, Modern Languages Unit, namely GER 101 (German I) and GER 102 (German II), GER 201 (German III) and GER 202 (German IV), or GER 301 (GER V) and GER 302 (GER VI) those who have previously failed these courses.

The exemption exam for German courses, offered by the Modern Languages Unit, will be held on Monday, September 28, 2026, at 17:00 on the Main Campus.

- The exam will be administered face-to-face between 17:00 – 18:00 on the Main Campus.
- Students who wish to take the exam must complete the pre-registration form to confirm their participation (CLICK HERE for the pre-registration form).

 Exam Date: Monday, September 28, 2026

 Exam Time: 17:00

 Exam Venue: MAIN CAMPUS, 1st Floor, Class 412 and 413.

- Students taking the exam must be present in the exam hall with their ID cards no later than 16:45.
- The results of the German exemption exam will be announced on the university website on 29.09.2026.

For students enrolled in programs taught in Turkish, the exemption grades for General English I, General English II, and Elective Foreign Language courses offered under the Modern Languages Unit are applied as shown in the table below:

EXEMPTION GRADE SCALE AND LETTER GRADE EQUIVALENTS
Standard Percentage Range	Letter Grade	Coefficient	Status
90 – 100	AA	4.00	Success
80 – 89	BA	3.50	Success
70 – 79	BB	3.00	Success
60 – 69	CB	2.50	Success
0 – 59	Fail

For more information about the exam, please CLICK HERE to access the Foreign Languages Education and Instruction Directive published on the university website.

STUDENTS WHO FAIL THE GERMAN EXEMPTION EXAM OR DO NOT TAKE THE EXAM ARE REQUIRED TO CONTINUE WITH GERMAN COURSES.